"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL
Warrent, To-day
A special decree by the President of China, instituting compulsory Labour Service under the title of "Auxiliary Defense Duty," will be issued in the near future, according to well informed quarters here. Under the decree all men between the ages of 25 and 33 will be obligated to work six days a year for the nation without pay or remuneration. On January 1, 1934, the first group will be drafted, and, in this service, East-Asians will be included.

EXCITING POLO SEEN IN K.O.Y.L.I. CUP

Fusiliers And Civilians In The Final

NEWIGGING SCORES GOAL FROM 80 YARDS

(By "REFEREE")

A large and distinguished gathering, including His Excellency the Governor and Lady Caldecott, witnessed the two first round matches in the K.O.Y.L.I. Cup Polo Tournament on the Polo Club ground, Boundary Street yesterday evening, the encounters resulting in wins for the Royal Welch Fusiliers over the Royal Ulster Rifles by 2 goals to 1, and for the Civilians over the Royal Artillery by 4 goals to 3.

Both encounters were very closely contested and the Fusiliers only managed to enter the final as a result of a goal scored by Capt. Kenyon during an extra period.

The game between the Rifles and the Fusiliers was featured by splendid riding by both teams. Capt. Friselle playing an excellent game as back while Lt. Harris and 2/Lieut. Donahoe lent good support.

Goal Defence

Lieut. Parker-Jervis and Capt. Kenyon were the most effective of the Fusiliers' team. Lieut. Bosanquet giving an impressive defensive display.

Lieut. Donahoe opened the scoring for the Rifles early in the second chukker and Lieut. Parker-Jervis levelled the scores in the last chukker, there being no further scoring until the extra period, when Capt. Kenyon placed the issue beyond doubt.

SEVERE SETBACK FOR THE CLUB SOUTH CHINA "B" LOSE LAI SHIU-WING

INTERESTING SENIOR SOCCER CARD

(By "Rover")

FOLLOWING soon after their disastrous attempt to wrest the points from the Rifles in the First Division, the Club's perfect forward line has been partially wrecked by injuries to Fowler and Fleming, the right-wing partnership, and as a result of which their chances of beating South China "B" have been greatly reduced.

The Chinese team, however, have lost a valuable forward in Lai Shiu-wing, their inside-left, who has been transferred to South China "A" to fill the gap in the forward line caused by the rumoured retirement of Lee Wai-tong. I understand that Lee will not be playing to-morrow for South China "A" against the Rifles, but will play later on in the season if his services are really needed.

South China "B" have, however, new talent in Cheuk Shek-kam and Yeung Shui-yick. All-China Olympic stars, who will reinforce their attack. Cheuk will play at inside-left while Yeung will be seen on the right-wing.

The Club are bringing Drown up from the intermediate line to inside-right, while Stone, one of the junior team's most promising players, will be seen in the right-wing position in support of the former. Skinner has again been brought into the team at right-half to fill Drown's vacancy.

Elms Back Again

F. J. Elms, who was absent last week, will reappear at left-half for St. Joseph's in their encounter.

Kowloon Fielding Good Side

STIFF TEST FOR ENGINEERS

(By "ROVER")

All the games in to-day's Second Division football programme should be keenly contested as the teams appear to be evenly matched. The outstanding game should be witnessed at Sookumpoo, where the Fusiliers entertain Kowloon.

Kowloon have not yet settled down as a side, and have so far made changes every week, but the present team is one of great possibilities and with more understanding should do well. Sinclair, of the Signals, is playing for them in the intermediate line and his presence there should considerably strengthen the defence. W. Knox and Winch should do well among the forwards.

The Fusiliers have a well-balanced forward line and in the team are included several players who were prominent in the first team last season, among these being Cockley, Ellis, Grindley and Harrison.

COLONY OPEN MIXED DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Thirteen Pairs Entered

SEVEN FROM KOWLOON C.C.

(By "REFEREE")

Thirteen entries in all were received for the Colony Mixed Doubles Lawn Tennis Championship, which is being held under the auspices of the Chinese Recreation Club and the draw for which took place yesterday evening, resulting in three byes into the Second Round.

The holders of the title, L. Goldman and Miss E. Hancock (U.S.R.C.), are both away from the Colony, but the runners-up, D. Rumbold and Mrs. Chiu Chen, have entered and are expected to win the title for the first time, although they will probably have to wait until the next round, as they are not yet in the final.

H. R. McGilchrist, above, one of the Club's finest Rugby wing-threequarters, was transferred to Malacca, F.M.S. several months ago and will be badly missed this season.

CLUB MEET NAVY AND ARMY

PROMISING NEWCOMERS WILL BE ON VIEW

SAILORS WILL HAVE GOOD SIDE

(By "Referee")

SOME interesting sport should be witnessed on the Club ground this afternoon when Rugby makes its official debut this season in the form of two matches between the Club and Army "A" fifteens, and the Club and Royal Navy first fifteens, the outstanding features of which should be the appearance of newcomers.

The Club will have some very promising talent on view and among the newcomers, Chadwick, the right-wing threequarter, and van Leeuwen, on the opposite touchline, are likely to be prominent. They lost their best wing threequarter several months ago when H. R. McGilchrist, was transferred to Malacca, Federated Malay States. He was a forcing winger with tremendous speed and his absence on the wing will be keenly felt.

Van Leeuwen, another newcomer, will be seen on the left touchline and, judging from the trials, promises to be one of the Club's most dangerous backs. In Grieve, his centre three-quarter, van Leeuwen has a very clever partner and the two are likely to be the most dangerous scoring factors to-day.

Bidwell, the other centre three, supporting Chadwick on the right-touchline, is also a very useful man. Butcher and Bonnar will again be behind the scrum in which two newcomers appear, Watson and Holden. Humphreys, Peers, Garrod, Coppin, Walkden and Munro are old members.

The Navy, although only represented by the Medway, Adventure and several Destroyers, are also fielding a fairly strong team.

Navy Scrum Half

Lt. Cotman makes his debut at full-back for the Navy, although he played for the Senior Service at Home as a scrum-half. He is definitely a useful acquisition to the Naval side and should be given a real test against the Club three-quarter line. Messer, the right wing threequarter, has played for the United Services, while Lt. Harvey, supporting him, played for the Navy at Home in the same position — he gained quite a reputation, until he was badly injured and was kept out of the game for some time.

Police Soccer Stalwart

H. G. W. GREEN, the Police inside-forward, was born in Liverpool and was educated at Leasgrove College, where at a very tender age he gave promise of developing into a good footballer. He represented his school in all League games and was for two seasons captain of the team, playing as centre-forward. He was twice capped as an English schoolboy international and secured a trial for Liverpool. He, however, joined the Navy soon after.

Green played regularly for the Navy and H.M.S. Hermes for seven years in the West Indies, and on the West Coast of Africa, and arrived in the Colony in 1930 on the same ship. During his three seasons here in the Navy, Green played continuously for them at centre-forward.

He joined the Police Force in 1933 and was promoted Lance Sergeant the following year. He still continued playing soccer for the Police, but last year an injury kept him out of the game for some time.

Green is a delightful footballer to watch. He never wastes a pass to-day on the Hong Kong Cricket Club ground when these two sides clash.

The Interport team will be without the services of L. D. Kilbee, A. H. Madar and A. R. Minnie, who have not returned to the Colony yet, but it is learned that their places will be filled by players to be picked from the Rest of the Colony.

The ex-Interporters have a very formidable team and a really good game should be seen. Tiffin will be taken at the Cricket Club pavilion at 1 p.m. and the game will start at 2 p.m. sharp.

Interport XI—T. A. Pearce, Capt. D. W. Pearce, Lt. C. C. Garthwaite, Lt. Hon. G. Clegg-Hill, W. H. Colledge, E. F. Fincher, K. Nazarin, R. Lee and three others.

Green is also a good billiards and snooker player and has represented the Police in the Steel, Coulson's League, and is ranked third among the members of the Force.

Boxing and wrestling were his other pastimes in the Navy, and he has played cricket for his ship's team on several occasions.

(By "The Twelfth Man")

London, September 14.

I HOPE the Lawn Tennis Association will see that little Miss Rosemary Thomas, of Wallington, who put up such a fine fight against that "good thing" Miss Gem Hoahing in the final of the Girls' Singles Championship at Wimbledon will get every encouragement of the proper kind.

At fifteen Miss Thomas has many ingredients which go to the make up of a champion—a good head for the game, an ideal temperament, and a fine control over all the shots she uses.

Miss Thomas seems to me the type of junior we have been looking for some time. Already she possesses so many things that our Wightman Cup players lack. There is no trace, for instance, of that uncertain streak which has marred the play of nearly all our leading players for years.

Her tennis may not be spectacular but it is eminently sound and she knows how to play better players than herself.

No Double Faults

I wonder whether any other beaten finalist at the Junior Championships has gone through three sets in the big match without serving a double fault.

The thing seems incredible on a ground where so many of our stars have repeatedly broken admirers' hearts by this silly error.

She Loves The Game

Having written thus about Miss Thomas tennis players will not be surprised when I tell them that she "loves the game beyond the prize" and has been passionately fond of it from very early years. Even the wearing of glasses has not deterred her.

The court in her Surrey home, and parents who know and play the game, have naturally been a great incentive to her.

(By "THE TWELFTH MAN")

London, September 15. Now that the United States lawn tennis championships are over, the professionals are getting down to serious business. The stormy petrel of professional tennis in America, Mr. Bill O'Brien, has jumped to the forefront with the statement that he is organising a giant tour of professional players and will bring them to Europe.

One does not have to look far to find that the old link-up of Fred Perry with professional tennis appears in Mr. O'Brien's statement.

He says if he could get Perry to join the troupe he would come straight to England.

That is not the end of Mr. O'Brien's hopes for the professional season, however. He is trying to persuade a new star to join his troupe. The new star is none other than "Betsy" Grant, the diminutive American who proved so popular over here during Wimbledon.

Fine Retriever

Grant made his first appearance at Wimbledon this year, and lived right up to the reputation which had preceded him from the U. S. Those who saw him agree that the game has never seen a better retriever.

I understand that Mr. O'Brien's idea, if he can get Grant's signature, is to bring him to Europe instead of the American doubles star, G. M. Lott. Personally Lott and Lester Stoeffen have been partners in most of the big tournaments.

(By "THE TWELFTH MAN")

London, September 21.

I wonder if the cult of golf for footballers is coming to an end. Sunderland, the champions, have set the ball rolling by decreeing that their players must not indulge in golf after Tuesday of each week throughout the season.

No official reason is given for the ban, but I understand the club look with disfavour on the growing number of footballers who even play golf on the morning of a match. Apparently the club believe that too much golf is interfering with soccer form.

Sunderland's move is in direct contrast to the practice of many other clubs. Most of the London clubs look on golf as a good means of keeping their players happy, and one London manager has told me that he believes in his men getting plenty of golf.

"Only a fit man can enjoy a round," he said, "and if players wish to play it shows they are fit and keen."

NO INTERVIEW AT BOMBAY*INQUIRY COMMITTEE
TO MEET*NAWAB OF PATAUDI GIVES PERSONAL VIEWS

Calcutta, October 2.

THE Maharajkumar of Vizianagram, captain of the Indian cricket team, arrived back yesterday, two days in advance of the team, who are travelling by another steamer and will arrive on Thursday. It is a matter of much comment that the captain was not met by a single cricket official connected with the Board of Control or the Cricket Club of India or the Bombay Cricket Association.

Vizianagram refused to be interviewed when he landed at Bombay. He said that he would have to look into the correspondence waiting for him at the hotel before he decided whether he would go to Bhopal to see the President of the Board of Indian Control or to Benares, his home.

In the meantime, the Inquiry Committee, appointed by the Board of Control, with Sir John Beaumont, Chief Justice of Bombay as chairman, is about to begin its sittings. Amarnath has been summoned from Lahore, and it is certain that the committee will give the Maharajkumar a chance of explaining the many unusual incidents that marred the success of the tour and which made him so unpopular with the team.

The Nawab of Pataudi, who arrived on the Strathmore, in an interview pleaded ignorance of the events connected with the Indian team's tour in England. He said that as his name had been mentioned as a likely successor to the Maharajkumar of Vizianagram he never went anywhere near the team. The only occasion he saw them play was on the last two days of their third Test.

He could not say whether there had been discussions in the side or whether the captain had handled the men badly on those occasions. The first Test was an open game till the last half day, but in the last Test the Indians were completely outplayed in all departments, and it would be uncharitable to lay the blame at the Maharajkumar of Vizianagram's door.

Regarding the enquiry by the Beaumont Committee, the Nawab said that the matter should either have been dropped completely and the incidents forgotten once and for all, or it should be thrashed out without fear or favour, even if it meant the washing of the dirtiest linen in public. "India's prestige in the cricket world certainly suffered a great deal by their display this summer," said the Nawab, "but the M.C.C., which was a generous body, would do all in their power to encourage foreign tours."

CHAMPIONSHIP

Seven From K.C.C.

The outstanding feature of the entries is that seven pairs have entered from the Kowloon Cricket Club, although E. C. Fincher is at present without a partner.

The L.R.C. are well represented by Sirdar Bumsahn and his cousin Miss R. Bumsahn, who will have a hard fight against Hung and Mrs. Wilson in the First Round. The following is the order of the draw:

G. C. Burnett and Miss O. Dalziel (K.C.C.) v. G. E. Clarke and Mrs. McCaw (K.C.C.).
F. Gross and Miss R. Perry (K.C.C.) v. Capt. J. D. Miles and Mrs. J. Ashton (U.S.E.C.).

W. C. Hung and Mrs. N. Wilson (K.C.C.) v. S. A. Bumsahn and Miss R. Bumsahn (L.R.C.).
G. Bodiker and Miss Holmes (K.C.C.) (bye).

E. C. Fincher and Partner (K.C.C.) v. Capt. L. J. R. Cragg and Mrs. Whinn (U.S.E.C.).
S. A. Gray and Miss A. MacKenzie (K.C.C.) (bye).

M. W. Le and Mrs. Lillian (PATER) v. J. P. Lays and Mrs. J. J. Cater.
H. D. Bumsahn and Mrs. Chin Chun-chin (bye).

EXCITING FOLD SEEN IN KOYLE-CUP

The match between the Artillery, who were very unlucky to lose, and the Civilians, ended in a win for the latter, much against the run of the play, as a result of a goal by Newbigging, scored about 80 yards away, just after the huddle had sounded signifying the end of the fourth chukker.

Penalty Missed

Early in the game Fielden rode across Baker-Carr's line and the Referee awarded a 40-yard penalty, from which Baker-Carr failed to score, Palmer turning the ball off his stick in front of the goal. Soon after Baker-Carr gave the Gunners the lead when he scored under his horse's neck through a crowd of players.

The second chukker saw no score, although the Civilians made several breakaways, splendid hitting by Lieut. Metcalfe, the Artillery back, featuring play, while Major Currie was instrumental in making several openings which fell through owing to lack of support. The third chukker saw the Gunners add their second goal through Major Currie when Lieut. Metcalfe hit the ball to within a few feet of the centre of the Civilians' goal, Major Currie riding through to apply the finishing touch.

Four Goals

Immediately afterwards the Civilians scored their first goal when Palmer rode through from the throw-in. The fourth chukker saw Stanton score off the post for the equaliser, and soon after Palmer gave the Civilians the lead for the first time with a splendid effort, but Major Currie again levelled the scores and, when everything pointed to an extra period after the huddle had sounded, Newbigging, following up a partial clearance by Major Drennan, scored off an 80 yard hit for the winning goal.

Teams were:—
R.U.F.:—
Capt. W. P. Kenyon 1
Lieut. E. C. Parker-Jervis 1
Lieut. N. R. G. Beaumont 1

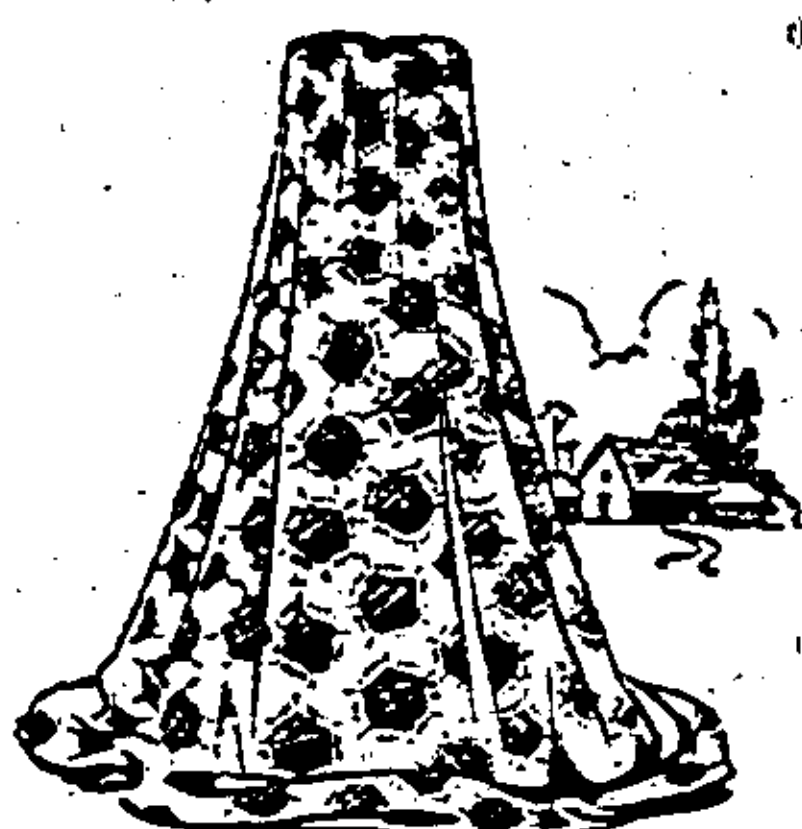

R.W.F.:—
Lieut. D. H. N. Baker-Carr 1

Air Transport's Swift Progress

Encouraging developments in the British air services were shown by the report on the progress of civil aviation last year which was issued from the Air Ministry recently. The efforts of 1935 were in a considerable measure experimental. New express services brought Budapest and Brindisi within a day's flying of London. It was the first complete year of operation of the London-Brisbane service. Trial flights were made from the Australian route to the Colony, and arrangements completed for a new service from Khartoum to West Africa. Preparations for that great enterprise, trans-Atlantic services, were pressed on. The traffic returns show that the number of miles flown on the regular Empire, Continental and internal lines rose from 4,537,000 in 1934 to 8,412,000, the number of passengers carried from 135,100 to 200,000, and air mail from 250 to 714 tons. An increase of passenger traffic by 48 per cent, and of mail traffic by 186 per cent provide convincing proof that vigorous experimental development is justified.

Other nations, spending much more lavishly on their air services than Britain, may well envy these results. The total British vote for civil aviation last year was only $639,000. Figures given to the House of Commons show that their subsidy per ton-mile was half that paid in Germany, and less than a quarter and a fifth of the payments in France and Italy. Under the new Air Navigation Act subsidies for air transport may be increased to $1,500,000 per annum. But that amount is estimated to cover not only the extension of Empire services to Africa, Asia and Australia, but the establishment of a North Atlantic air line and the contemplated provision of another for the Southern Atlantic. Across the North Atlantic scheduled services are expected in the summer of 1938. Boldly experimental aircraft are now being built for this trans-Atlantic flight. The strenuously increased activity of 1935 encouraged progress in construction. New types of aircraft were produced showing a general improvement in range and speed and carrying capacity in proportion to weight. It is not only as a means to the closer unity of the Empire, or to more convenient travelling that these extensions of the air services should be welcomed. Last year the British aircraft industry expanded proportionately, and had a record value of exports. More than 70 States are now on its order books and, in spite of the efficiency of rivals, its hold on the larger foreign markets was strengthened. The importance of this success needs no emphasis.

PRETTY KOWLOON WEDDING

BRIDE JUST OUT
FROM HOME

ASHWORTH — STRINGER

The Kowloon Union Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon when Miss Phyllis Maude Stringer became the bride of Mr. Hubert Allen Ashworth, assistant manager of the Kiangsu Chemical Works, Shanghai. The Rev. Mr. J. D. MacLean officiated. The bride, who arrived from Home by the a.s. Ranchi on Thursday, is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stringer, of Huddersfield, England. The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ashworth, also of Huddersfield.

Entering the Church on the arm of Mr. J. Watson, the bride looked charming in white satin wedding gown set off with a lace veil held in place by a bandeau of orange blossom. She carried a sheaf of pale pink gladioli and golden fern.

Miss Peggy Duncan, the flower-girl, wore an ankle-length blue French crepe dress with a golden head-dress and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of gladioli and golden fern.

Mrs. J. W. S. Hood, the matron-of-honour, was attired in a wine coloured velvet dress trimmed with gold and set off with a gold hat. She carried golden fern.

Mr. Sidney W. Minshall was best man.

Following the Church ceremony, a reception was held at the Peninsula Hotel. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth left for their honeymoon, which is being spent at Repulse Bay. They are leaving for Shanghai on Saturday, October 24, on the Conte Verde.

CHIANG'S BIRTHDAY PRESENT

Four Planes From Local
Chinese Community

DOOR-TO-DOOR CAMPAIGN

With reference to the subscriptions collected by the local Chinese towards the birthday gift of aeroplanes to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, it now seems assured that the Hong Kong Chinese community's gift will take the form of at least four machines.

It has been announced by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce that so far over $140,000 has been received. The amount does not include the various sums sent direct to Nanking, which include Sir Robert Ho Tung's $100,000 and the Chinese Gold and Silver Exchange's $100,000.

Congratulatory Telegrams. October 31 being the 50th birthday of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek there will be numerous telegrams sent to him in congratulation. The Telegraph Administration of Canton has arranged that a congratulatory telegram containing less than 20 words may be sent for 40 cents (national currency). Such telegrams can be sent before October 31 but will be kept for delivery on that day. Marshal Chiang has advised that no gifts should be presented to him on the occasion of his birthday, as the present is a hard time for the nation. The public can express their sentiments by contributing to the Aeroplane Fund and by sending congratulatory messages.

During the past few days, members of the Chung Sing Benevolent Society and Chinese film stars have been on a door-to-door canvassing campaign, and up to date over $3,000 has been raised. It is interesting to note that at the end of each day's work the canvassers are entertained to dinner by Mr. Lan King Tsing, chairman of the Tung Koon Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

A fire broke out yesterday in a crowded section of Kowloon, No. 420 Shanghai Street, Mongkok, and two fire-appliances were rushed to the scene from the Tsimshatsui station, in response to an alarm received at 12.58 p.m. Station Officer Willard was in charge of the appliances and the fire was completely put out in an hour's time. Considerable damage was done to the kitchen structure. Nobody was injured.

Here There and Everywhere.

SCOTTISH DUTCHMAN

It is appropriate that the band of the Gordons is to play at the Empire Exhibition at Johannesburg, for although very few people are aware of the fact, a Gordon christened the Orange River.

He was Col. Robert Jacob Gordon, of the Scots Brigade in Holland, and of Scottish descent. Actually, however, Gordon was to all intents and purposes a Dutchman.

He went out to the Cape in 1777 at the age of 36, and was in command of the Dutch troops there. It was on August 17, 1779, that he and two companions christened the Orange River, the three raising their glasses in honour of the Stadtholder.

When the English forces landed at the Cape in 1795, the problems facing Gordon as the result of his dual nationality weighed so heavily on him that he shot himself.

MOSCOW WORLD FAIR?

Stalin, it is said, has ambitious plans to celebrate the establishment of the U.S.S.R. "liberalised" Constitution by holding the greatest international exhibition ever staged.

Plans for this event have grown from the scheme for the 2,000-acre botanical gardens now being built on the Lenin Hills near Moscow. Here, by a special system of subsoil refrigeration or heating, tropical and arctic plants grow close together in the open air.

It was recently decided to establish a Russian "Whipsnade" beside the Botanical Gardens.

It is said that the Russian tourist agencies alone have been ordered to prepare to convey a million foreigners to the exhibition.

NEW EXPLORATIONS OF STRATOSPHERE CELLOPHANE BALLOONS BEING USED

SCIENTISTS' EXPERIMENTS IN AMERICA

ABOUT fourteen months ago mentally while he was voyaging the Bartol Research Foundation, Philadelphia, conceived the idea of substituting cheap cellophane for the thin, dense, expensive rubber used for sounding balloons. He told Dr. Jean Piccard about it. In odd moments Johnson and Piccard constructed a balloon and designed a machine to cement the seams. The U.S. Bureau of Standards heard of the work and made experiments on its own account.

Busy with the Bartol recorder, which goes unaccompanied on long sea voyages to measure the latitude effect of the cosmic rays in different directions, Johnson did nothing more with cellophane balloons in the summer of 1935. Last winter he developed radio apparatus to be carried into the stratosphere by the balloons and to signal to the ground station the kind of information about the cosmic rays and the atmosphere that a physicist wants.

Big Balloon Built

With the aid of Dr. Piccard a balloon five meters in diameter was built. There were leaks, and the design was not all that it should have been. The first was the last ascent. A slight gust of wind finished the balloon. A week later Johnson made another. This was launched successfully. It takes him only a day now to cut out cellophane and paste the strips together to form a balloon.

With the aid of cellophane balloons, Dr. Johnson hopes to obtain effectively and inexpensively information about the cosmic rays at heights that could never be attained by a man-carrying balloon as big as the Explorer II, in which Captain Stevens recently broke the human altitude record. The relation of the strength of the rays at high, low and intermediate latitudes at all attainable heights is to be determined.

Rays Remain Constant

At sea level the latitude effect ceases at about 45 degrees. North and south of this belt the rays do not vary in strength. By "latitude" the physicist means the geomagnetic and not the geographical latitude. The Dutch physicist, Clay, was the first to observe this latitude effect experi-

999 Equals?

The above figure expresses 9 raised to the 9th power of 9, or 9 raised to the 327,420,489th power. It is the largest sum that can be indicated by 3 figures. The final answer will contain 369 millions of digits. Allowing for 5 digits to the inch, the length of tape required to write down the answer would be 1,164 miles. The answer would be 1,164 miles, and the ordinary human span of life would be sadly insufficient to accomplish the task.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

LOCAL SHARE

Messrs. Harriman's Weekly Report

Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co.'s weekly share-report and market review issued at noon to-day states:-

The past week has seen a period of quiet and uninteresting markets, albeit there have been one or two minor "flutters" among Manila shares; although Philippine mining shares generally are rather "off colour" and the volume of business transacted has declined quite considerably. Lack of interest, rather than selling pressure would appear to explain the present lethargic state of markets and a revival of activity should set in fairly soon, for conditions political and otherwise must eventually influence buying support to the local market; whilst the continued good bullion returns of the producing mining companies should help sustain quotations in Manila.

There has been a good buying demand for Hong Kong Banks which are now $1632 bid; and for Union Insurance which have reached $582½. Small business was done in Canton Insurance, at $260 at which figure further shares can be taken.

Our utility stocks have come under pressure and quotations have receded. Hong Kong Electric falling to $53¼. Telephone (old) to $28¼ and the new shares to $10.30 (at which there are buyers). China Lights (old) are $14.40 bid; about unchanged over the week. Star Ferries came to business, to $95, sellers over Hotels have been freely dealt in around $6, closing $5.95 cash and $6.15 buyers December. Lands exchanged at $40¼ and Humphreys at $9.30. Wharves have been unsupported down to $112, but Providents (old) have been the medium of a fair turnover, at fluctuating rates the closing quotation being $2.10-$2.15. The new shares offer at 20 cts. with 10 cts. bid. Cements are unaltered at $11.50. Dairies have shed $1 to $22¼. Constructions (new) were taken at 42½ cts. and have further buyers. Ewos have kept very steady and sales were reported at $410.50.

In the mining share market, a sharp rise in Antamoks and Mambuloos were a feature. The former put on $1 to close around $7 buyers Mambuloos after several weeks neglect were in strong demand up to 98 cts. on good news being received from the property. San Mauricios have kept fully steady dealers taking place between $6.20 and $6.35. Demonstrations have been taken in fair sized parcels, but the quotation remains unchanged at $157½. Atoks are slightly lower at $1.07, but have good buyers at this rate. Big Wedge have scarcely altered in price all the week, and close unchanged at 82 cents. Bauxites, Benguet Explorations, Northern and Consolidated Mines are all on the easy side, but the better descriptions of the Marsman and Soriano groups have kept very steady throughout the week.

The tone of all markets at the close is steady but on the quiet side. The latest news from Manila advises that the stock Exchange there will resume Saturday Morning trading as from the 17th instant.

POLICE CONSTABLE IN TROUBLE

Alleged Bribe To European

Lower Court proceedings against Howard Singh, Indian constable B554, an interpreter stationed at the Wanchai Police Station, on a charge of having given a bribe of $220 to Lance-Sergeant Gough on September 15 with a view to influencing his conduct, as a public servant commenced before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon.

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney General, assisted by Sub-Inspector Baker, Officer-in-Charge of Police guards, appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. G. S. Hughes Jones appeared for defendant. Evidence was given by Sergeant Gough, corroborating the opening of the case, after which the hearing was adjourned.

The Friends of Tao Fong Shan will hold a meeting for meditation and discussion, conducted by Dr. Reichelt, at the Tao Fong Shan Chapel, Bishop's House, Hong Kong, at 6 p.m. on Wednesday next. It is hoped that many friends will be able to be present at the first meeting this season.

The Rector of St. Margaret's Church, Happy Valley, announces that to-morrow being the Feast of the Church's Patron Saint there will be a Solemn Pontifical Mass at 9 a.m. At 4.30 a procession and Benediction will take place. The Sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Fr. Cooney, S.J.

The Rev. Mother Superior and her Community beg to thank the Right Rev. Bishop H. Valtorta and the Fathers and Sisters for their kind attendance at the funeral of their dear Sister, the Rev. Mother Adele Carabelli, and also all their friends who were present.

A Gazette notification states that His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to recognise Mr. Frederick Charles Fornes, Jr., provisionally and pending the issue of His Majesty's Exequatur, as Consul of the United States of America at Hong Kong.

The name of the Ng Wah Trust and Industrial Bank, Ltd., has been struck off the register.

His Honour the Chief Justice has ordered that the Criminal Sessions for the month of October shall be held on Monday, October 19, at 10 a.m.

Surg. Lt. Benson, one of the Navy's best backs and a well-known figure in Colony Rugby, is the other centre and should prove a very dangerous man. A splendid place-kick, he is invaluable to any side. Sub. Lt. Gordon, on the left touchline, played for Portsmouth Services and is also a useful man.

Well-known Pair
The Navy halves are also a well-known pair, Lt. Euman being the fly-half, while Lt. Knox will be at the base of the scrum. There are several newcomers among the forwards, Lt. Robinson, Lt. McKean and Lt. Hawkins, having played for Portsmouth Services, while Lt. McEath, the middle of the second row, played for the United Services, Portsmouth.

The "A" fifteen game, which commences at 3.15 p.m., will also see several newcomers on view in both teams. The Army will be fielding a fairly strong team with a large number of first fifteen players, among whom are Pte. Evans, Lt. Lincoln, Capt. Gillespie, Lt. Harrison, Cpl. Harrison (R.E.) and Spr. Cullinan.

Among the most promising of the Club newcomers in the "A" fifteen is Lyle, who will be seen as scrum-half, while Henderson, another newcomer, will be fly-half. Curtis, another newcomer, will be seen at full-back, while Wilson and Griffiths, who played last season, will be the two centre three-quarters.

The Teams

The teams are as follows:-
Club "A" XV: Curtis, D. Eyles, Griffiths, G. Wilson, Stewart, Lyle, Henderson, Russell, Chambers, Clark, Edwards, Dunnett, Reiman, Cumming, and Heath.

Army: Spr. Boyling (R.E.), Cpl. Shearman (R.E.), Acfm. Edwards (R.A.F.), Pte. Evans (E. Lancs.), Lt. Withers (R.A.), Spr. Duncan (R.E.), Lt. Lincoln (B.U.R.), Lt. Dayrell (R.A.), Capt. Gillespie (R.E.), Spr. Cullinan (R.E.), Pte. Atiles (R.A.C.), Lt. Calvert (R.E.), Lt. Harrison (E. Lancs.), Cpl. Harrison (R.E.), Rtm. Beasley (R.U.F.), Cpl. J. V. Fox, Chadwick, Bidwell, Griev, van Leeuwen, Butcher, Bonnar, Humphreys, Watson, Holden, Pears, Garrod, Copping, Walkden and Munro.

Navy: Lt. Cotman (Bruce), Lt. S. A. Mearns (Adventure), Lt. Harvey (Medway), Surg. Lt. Benson (Medway), (Captain), Sub. Lt. Gordon (Adventure), Lt. Euman (Medway), Lt. Knox (Medway), Lt. Robinson (Ouse), Lt. McKean (Delic), Lt. Cochran (Bruce), O. A. Day (Adventure), Lt. McEath (Cape town), Lt. Hawkins (Medway), M. Wumford (Adventure), Lt. Magnus (Diamond).

OBITUARY

Rev. Mother Adele Carabelli

It is with deepest regret we learn of the death of Rev. Mother Adele Carabelli, of the Carmesian Institute (Italian Convent) who passed away on Thursday at 10.30 p.m., at the age of 80 years and 5 months.

The late Mother Adele spent most of her life in Hong Kong, about 45 years, without ever returning to Italy and for 60 years had consecrated her life to religious service.

The Funeral
The funeral of the late Rev. Mother Adele Carabelli took place at the Roman Catholic Cemetery yesterday in the presence of a large gathering of friends, Fathers of the different Congregations, the Sisters of the different Institutions, Mr. Cunietti, representing the Italian Consul, and all the inmates of the Italian Convent and many people from Wanchai.

The Right Rev. Bishop H. Valtorta, assisted by the Rev. Fathers of the Mission, officiated at the graveside.

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS

The following Government appointments, etc., are notified in the Government Gazette:-

Mr. Cecil Graham Perdue to act as Inspector-General of Police and Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, during the absence on leave of the Hon. Mr. Thomas Henry King or until further notice, with effect from October 12;

Mr. David Mercer MacDougall to be Principal Assistant Colonial Secretary and Clerk of Councils, with effect from October 16;

Mr. John Henry Burdill Lee to be Deputy Clerk of Councils, with effect from October 16.

M.C.C. Tourists Do Well

Perth, To-day. G. O. Allen, the English captain and fast bowler who was sending Australia down fast-in-swingers, captured 3 day with a match against Western Australia and was in a very favourable position at the close of 35.

The match will be continued to-day and on Monday. At lunch time the score was 61 for 4, and the English bowlers continued to have the upper hand after the interval and the Western Australian innings closed for 142. At the close of play, the tourists had scored 91 for 1.

FRIENDLY CRICKET RESULTS

G. Kew Bats Well For D.B.S.

Playing on the Diocesan Boys' School ground on Wednesday, the Royal Army Service Corps defeated the school in a friendly cricket match by 23 runs.

D.B.S.: 86 (G. Kew 35 not out, A. Macaulay 30; Hopcroft 4 for 23, including the "hat-trick"; Lt. Col. Smith 4 for 14).

R.A.S.C.: 109 (Lt. Col. Forman 52; E. Fisher 4 for 30).

University Just Win

In a friendly cricket match on Wednesday, at Pokfulam, the University beat Queen's College by 19 runs.

University: 96 (M. C. Hung 44; O. Tahir 4 for 22, N. Singh 5 for 34).

Queen's: 79 (T. E. Yeoh 34; H. Chey 6 for 45).

EAST. LANCS. SCORE CRICKET WIN

Inter-Unit Competition

In the first round of the inter-unit knock-out cricket tournament at Sookmoo on Thursday, the East Lancs. defeated the Royal Ulster Rifles by 8 wickets. The Rifles hit up 92 runs, the chief scorer being Ridesman Cochrane with 33. C. S. M. Elvin captured 6 for 35.

The East Lancs. made the required runs for victory for the loss of 2 wickets. L/Cpl. Goldsmith was 38 not out, Elvin 21 and L/Cpl. Whitehead 18 not out.

MATCHES CANCELLED

Craigengower Cricket Club announce that their friendly cricket fixtures for October 17, and October 24, for first and second XI, with the I.R.C. and the H.K.C.C. respectively, are unavoidably cancelled.

AN "IMAGINARY LOVER"

Girl's Alleged Jewel Gifts To Herself

REMAND FOR MEDICAL REPORT

An 18-year-old girl cashier, charged at Marylebone-street last month with embezzling over £48 from her employers, was said to have created an imaginary lover and to have bought herself jewellery and other things as "tokens of love."

The girl, Eileen Rainbird, of Victoria-road, Kilburn, N.W., was alleged to have spent in this way money she should have paid into a bank. Asked why she did it, she said: "Because I wanted the excitement of it, I suppose."

Mr. Claud Hornby, defending, stated that the girl had for years been treated for thyroid trouble. She had told him that she had a "boy friend" at all.

The girl had given chocolates and fruit to her colleagues, and for herself had bought about £20 worth of jewellery. He added that the secretary to Mr. S. P. Viant, M.P. for West Wiltshire, was willing to give her a job.

The magistrate, Mr. Harold McKenna, remanded the girl for a medical report.

SEVERE SETBACK FOR THE CLUB

against Eastern at Causeway Bay and the former team should win their match easily.

The Recreation and Athletic Club should be a very fast one and, in spite of, only having played together for one or two games, the Chinese are favoured to come away with both points. A. V. Gosano is still the mainstay of the Portuguese defence, with Beltrao rendering great work in the intermediate line, but until Bertie Gosano makes a return to the attack, it will always lack that thrust which was so apparent in former seasons.

In the remaining senior game, the Fusiliers should win comfortably against Kowloon, although before the season commenced, Kowloon won a friendly encounter at home by 3 goals to 2.

To-morrow's Clash

The outstanding feature of the week-end programme is to-morrow's match between the League champions, South China "A" and the Rifles, their most formidable opponents.

Lee Wai-tung is definitely not playing for the Chinese and his absence will be keenly felt. Lee is, however, open to persuasion and may, as with several of last year's games, be made to play at the last moment. South China "A" will, however, be very strong and are expected to retain their reputation.

The Rifles will probably be without the services of Ferguson, their leader, who has been on the injured list since last week's clash against the Club.

Navy's Debut

Another outstanding feature of to-morrow's senior card is the first appearance this season of the Royal Navy, whose team will probably be drawn from H.M.S. Medway, Adventure and Destroyers.

The Navy are likely to be a very powerful side and in addition to the new talent, Reglar, their full-back, and Wride and Gauld, forwards, who have been playing for the juniors, will probably make their appearance in the first Division.

The sailors meet the Kowloon Chinese and are expected to open the season with a win.

INTERESTING JUNIOR CARD

Lyemman should register their first win of the season against Eastern, who are barely up to Second Division standard, while the Gunners have not been able to appreciate the value of combination. Knight, their pivot, is a useful player, while Clancy and Worthington in the defence should be able to hold the Eastern forwards, of which Hamet and Lee are the most dangerous.

In spite of their bad showing so far, Stonecutters should beat the Athletic while, the Club, by reason of being the heavier side, should beat South China.

In the Third Division the Engineers should be fully tested by Liga, and in spite of the splendid performances of the Sappers to date, their defence will probably undergo a trying time against the fast Portuguese forwards, L. Jordan and Bealey are the pick of the Sappers' forward line, while in the Liga's defence Gomez and H-A Remedios are the outstanding players.

The Medicals have lost most of last year's players but are fortunate in having their places filled by capable newcomers, and as they are fast settling down they should be a hard team to beat. Allen, a newcomer, will be in goal and Admington, Gompier and Hiches will constitute the half-back line.

The forward line will be led by Harrison and will include Stanton, Flat-Yond and Wilson, all of whom played in the latter part of the season.

The Fusiliers and the East Lancs should have no opposition from the Chinese Police and the European Police respectively, while a good game should be witnessed between the Air Force and Recreation at King's Park.

TRAGIC AIR MISHAP

AIRMAN DIES AS HE TAKES OFF

Plane Soars To 2,000 Feet And Dives

PASSENGERS' FIGHT TO REACH CONTROLS

Johannesburg.

A few seconds after taking off in his private aeroplane, with two passengers, Dr. Dalton, the 53-year-old captain of the Benoni Flying Club, had a heart seizure recently and died at the controls.

The machine immediately soared to 2,000ft out of control, while the passengers, Miss Nora Atwell, aged 16, and Mr. S. R. Kruger, a mine shift boss, made frantic efforts to reach the controls. The plane circled and dived high in the air while they endeavored to drag the doctor's body from the cockpit through a narrow space to the passenger seats.

When a crash appeared almost inevitable, Mr. Kruger, who has had nine hours' flying experience, was able to reach the control with the tips of his fingers. The machine dived down and missed colliding with high tension electric wires by inches.

It then made a "pancake" landing in the open veld, smashing under-carriage, but the two passengers were practically unhurt.

The "charm" of simplicity is expressed in this printed creation worn by lovely June Travis, screen actress. A wide, white collar sets off the printed dress of crepe.

AIR-MINDED BOYS WERE FRANK

Thought Atherley No Good!

Aldershot.

Two air-minded boys aged about nine were standing beside a number of pilots watching the testing of one of the latest planes at Farnborough Aerodrome last month.

The criticisms of the boys caused amusement and amazement among the pilots watching.

They discussed the flying, and suddenly one boy exclaimed, "What a poor turn he made; he must be an amateur!"

But the boys were enthusiastic in their praise a few seconds later when the plane landed and they shouted with joy—"What a perfect landing; to be sure!"

The "amateur" pilot was Flight-Lieut. R. L. R. Atherley, the famous airman, of Schneider Trophy fame, now in the experimental department at Farnborough Aircraft Establishment.

NEW BOMBER IN FRANCE

Orders Placed By England

Delivery in England is expected shortly of one of the latest single-seater French fighters which was ordered by the British Air Ministry last January.

The machine is a Dewoitine D-510 fitted with a Hispano 12-cylinder cannon-engine. Fitted between the two banks of cylinders is a gun which fires two-lb. shells at a high rate of fire.

It is probably to investigate the efficiency of such comparatively heavy armaments, which have recently become popular with air forces on the continent, that the Air Ministry has bought the machine.

FEWER WOMEN IN CANTON

POLICE CENSUS DISCLOSURES

ONLY 71 DIVORCEES

That there are fewer women than men in Canton is borne out by the disclosure of a recent census taken under the supervision of the Canton Police, whose reports, according to the vernacular press, state that against a total of 102,608 bachelors there are only 68,317 unmarried women.

The men who registered as having had been married numbered 805,356, and the married women amounted to 243,480. It will be noticed that the men outnumbered the women. This is probably due to the fact that, at the time when the census was taken, the wives of the excess number of married men were not in the city but away in their respective villages.

That women outlive their husbands is manifested by the number of 25,213 widows, against 6,829 widowers. Those who had been divorced totalled 71, of which number 49 were men.

CHANNEL BUOYS

WHAT would modern navigation do without the channel buoys—those floating markers that keep ships off the shoals? In a very real sense, the advertisements in this paper are channel buoys, placed for your protection—for the safeguarding of the family expenditures.

These advertisements are the signed statements of reputable firms who seek your patronage on the single basis of giving value for every dollar spent. They are honest statements, the only kind an advertiser can use and remain an advertiser.

People who get the most for their dollar in the market-places are those who keep an eye on the channel buoys. Day by day, they follow the advertisements to learn what and where to buy to the best advantage. Make this a habit. Study the advertisements, in the interest of shrewder buying.

The advertisers in this paper have charted the channels of buying for you. Keep to the course.

FLYING FLEA CRASHES

Serious Injuries To Co-Designer

DOUBTS ON SAFETY REVIVED

Paris.

The controversy in England and France over the safety of the Flying Flea aeroplane will be revived by a serious accident to the co-designer of the machine last month.

M. Robert Robineau, the collaborator of M. Mignet, the inventor of the machine, was badly injured when the Flying Flea in which he was taking off crashed at Soissons Aerodrome.

It nose-dived and crashed after rising about 180ft. This tendency to nose-dive led to temporary bans on the machine both in England and France.

In England tests of a Flying Flea, built strictly to the original design, in the wind tunnel at Farnborough were stated to have shown the machine to be safe.

It was therefore assumed in both countries that the nose-dive was found only in machines that were not built according to the plans of the designers.

Local Share Market

H. K. Stock Exchange Weekly
Report 3.15 p.m. yesterday.

Business during the period under review has perhaps shown rather less activity, but still quite a satisfactory trade has been done, mainly in Philippine Gold Mining shares.

Locally the market has ruled quiet for the greater part of the week, and in some directions rates have developed an easier tendency because of little support, but at the close there are signs of recovery and several stocks have again come into request. Sterling investment shares are notably strong and there has been a substantial improvement in the value of H. K. & Shanghai Banks.

Hong Kong, 11th September, 1936.

When customs officials at the Estonian border station, Meitene, refused to believe that Miss Drangelene Darlys, the American Lithuanian soprano, was a professional singer, and was importing an elaborate wardrobe for professional purposes, she cleared her throat and executed a complicated coloratura.

The official listened in administration, and then bowed himself out of the railway carriage.

When Mrs. Shipley was told of the sentence.

A friend of the family said:
"When Mrs. Shipley knew that the case was to be heard she wrote urging him to take the legal advice that was at his disposal. Then,
although she could scarcely speak,
she sent the message by a relative.
"Her husband sent back word from prison of his anxiety over her condition. He is broken up over what has happened."

"They have always been a very devoted couple. I do not know when Mrs. Shipley will be told of the sentence."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

Subject: "Doctrine Of Atonement"

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches to-morrow, October 18, will be "Doctrine of Atonement."

The Golden Text will be "Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us" (Hebrews 9: 24.)

Amongst others, the following citations from the Bible will be read:—

"These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come;
glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee.
Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word: That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them,
as thou hast loved me." (John 17: 1, 6, 11, 20, 21, 23.)

Divine Oneness

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health. With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary
Baker Eddy:—

"Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God,
whereby man reflects divine Truth,
Life and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage.
His mission was both individual and collective. He did life's work aright not only in justice to himself, but in mercy to mortals—to show them how to do theirs, but not to do it for them nor to relieve them of a single responsibility. The atonement of Christ reconciles man to God, not God to man; for the divine Principle of Christ is God, and how can God propitiate Himself? Christ is Truth, which reaches no higher than itself. The fountain can rise no higher than its source. Christ, Truth, could conciliate no nature above his own, derived from the eternal Love. It was therefore Christ's purpose to reconcile man to God, not God to man. Love and Truth are not at war with God's image and likeness. Man cannot exceed divine Love, and so atone for himself. Even Christ cannot reconcile Truth to error, for Truth and error are irreconcilable. Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin and death by the law of Spirit—the law of divine
Love." (Pages 18, 19.)

Procrastination
Is Fatal

By Ely Culbertson

Plays meant to fool the opponents and cause them to do what they shouldn't or not to do what they should, are likely to be particularly effective when made at the beginning of a hand. For this there are several excellent reasons. First, the opponents, at this stage of the play know less about the hand than they do in the later rounds, and are therefore reckoning with possibilities rather than actualities. Second, they have not yet had much time to think. Third, some players have the unfortunate habit of postponing their decisions, even when it would be mentally possible to make them earlier, until it is too late. Against these chronic procrastinators, of course, early surprise plays are even more effective than against the general class of players. Procrastination is the thief not only of time, but of tricks.

In to-day's hand the South player avoided sure defeat by forcing East to make the vital decision of the hand—whether or not to discard a King—on the second-trick.

It is easily seen that by utilizing one or two spade ruffs, the North and South players could have defeated East and West's five-heart contract either 500 or 900 points. On the other hand, the North player could not be certain that the opposing contract was unmakeable, and rather than risk losing the rubber he decided to gamble on six clubs.

It is further evident that six clubs is a hopeless contract, as two diamond tricks must be lost. The Declarer, however, did not sign himself to defeat. After ruffing the opening heart, lead he saw one ray of hope. If he could strip both opponents' hands of spades and clubs and then play the Ace and another diamond, and if the opponent who won the second diamond did not have a third one to lead, an automatic ruff and discard would ensue on whatever other suit was led. However, South realized that if he immediately went about stripping the hand, the defense would soon realize what was occurring, and by the time the diamond Ace was led, would take the proper unblocking measures to defeat his purpose.

Therefore, at trick 2 South laid down the Ace of diamonds. Had the East player been sufficiently fastwitted, he would have realized that there was something peculiar in this play and that it early surprise attack

Cinema Notes From
The Theatres"SNOWED UNDER"—QUEEN'S

"Snowed Under," a rollicking First National Comedy romance with a New England setting brings together a leading man and three leading women, all of whom are top notch Hollywood stars in their own right. George Brent has the lead while the feminine trio is composed of Genevieve Tobin, Glenda Farrell and Patricia Ellis.

The hilarious comedy situations show a handsome young play-wright snow-bound in a Connecticut farmhouse, with two ex-wives and a new sweetheart, a love-lorn lawyer and a romantic sheriff. Brent has the role of the play-wright, who has promised a drama to a New York producer, but is unable to get an idea for his final act. Genevieve Tobin, in the role of his first wife, now divorced but still in love with her ex-husband, goes to Brent's retreat to help him out, at the suggestion of the producer, Porter Hall, she having some talent in the literary field herself.

Then comes Glenda Farrell, the second wife, who had stolen Brent's affections from Miss Tobin, but is now clamouring for alimony which the luckless young playwright is unable to pay. She brings with her, her lawyer who in turn is in love with Brent's newest sweetheart, Patricia Ellis, who arrives just before the blizzard sets in. Miss Farrell has full intentions of getting her alimony or putting her ex-hubby in gaol, and with this intention the sheriff, Frank McHugh, is also brought to Brent's home. The picture winds up happily in a most surprising climax.

"SHOW BOAT"—ALHAMBRA

Music and romance and drama, fused together by magic that weaves an enchanting spell. This briefly describes "Show Boat," which will sweep across one's emotions like the rushing tide of the Mississippi.

What memories the Kern-Hammerstein songs bring back! What thrills in the love story of Marmelion and Ravenel, portrayed by Irene Dunne and Allan Jones! There is the convincing throbbing of life in the narrative, peopled with 3,500 players on the screen.

There is the rhythm of the ages in Paul Robeson's songs "Old Man River" and "Ah Still Suits Me." Behind his splendid robust baritone there are pulsing waves of harmony, swelling from 200 resonant voices that rise and fall, and beat like tree branches vibrating in the wind, or like ship's sails, billowing full, thrumming against a swift-running sea.

There is Helen Morgan, the Julie who outwitted audiences when she sang "Burr" and "Can't Help Lovin' That Man" on the stage. She gives her screen role the same appealing charm.

Charles Winninger, the show-boat Captain, possesses a warm human friendliness that seems to reach out and cheer up the whole world. His wife, Parthy, portrayed by Helen Westley, is a sharply-etched characterisation of a lady with a talent for uttering words that burst like fire and brimstone. There is the smart dancing of Queenie Smith and Sammy White emphasised by a chorus of 48 beauties who probably learned to dance as soon as they could walk. Sunnie O'Dea offers a winsome performance.

almost surely would not cost him a think to drop his diamond King on the Ace. However, East was not sufficiently clever to do this.

The South player continued by ruffing all his spades in Dummy and the last heart in his own hand, and drawing the adverse trumps. He now led a low diamond, and poor East had no choice but to win the trick with his now blank King. He was forced to lead a heart, and this card was of course trumped in Dummy, the last diamond being discarded from the South hand.

There is no doubt but that East should be charged for his failure to unblock, but South should at least get some mark of commendation for his brilliant Sleep-walker "Tiger Man" by night!

The very latest in smart wear for the bride price is displayed by blonde Shirley Lloyd, latest addition to Hollywood's armament. The white, checked vest forms a pleasant contrast against the dark skirt.

"THE AMATEUR GENTLEMAN"—KING'S THEATRE

"The Amateur Gentleman," the first production of Criterion Films, was adapted by Clemence Dane from Jeffery Fargol's famous novel and features Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Elissa Landi in the starring roles.

The story, set in the colourful Regency period, deals with the adventures of Barnabas, Bary, the son of an inn keeper, who by his skill as a prize-fighter and wrestler rises to prominence in London society. Meanwhile his father is sentenced to death on a false charge. Barnabas rescues his father from prison and in an exciting denouement unmasks the real culprit. In doing so, he wins the hand of Lady Glene.

Particularly notable among the lavish settings is the reconstruction of the 18th-century Carlton House Ballroom, which is claimed to be the largest set ever built for a British film. Costume and historical research work was under the supervision of James Laver, Assistant Keeper of the Victoria and Albert Museum.

"The Amateur Gentleman" was produced by Marcel Hellman and directed by Thornton Freeland. Besides Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Elissa Landi, who returns to the British screen after an absence of five years, the cast includes Gordon Harker, Frank Pettigell, Basil Sydney, Athole Stewart and Hugh William.

"EARLY TO BED"—STAE

Mary Boland and Charlie Ruggles make a sanatorium and res-home their honeymoon spot in their latest riot-farce "Early to Bed."

The veterans of many hit comedies are cast as a couple who marry after an engagement of 20 years, and set out immediately on a trip which brings one ludicrous situation after another.

Charlie appears as mouse-like Chester Beatty, an employee of 25 years standing, with the Matchless Eye Co. manufacturers of a dozen types of glass eyes. Mary, as Tessie Weeks, is the girl whom he has courted for two decades. Despite Tessie's desire to see Niagara Falls cherished for 20 years, Chester, tired with ambition to land the world's biggest glass-eye order, heads for the sanatorium. He knows Horace Stanton, maker of vacuum tubes, is spending a vacation there.

Complications begin immediately at Lake Okauchoochoochee. Lodge A, Jewel robbery and a murder at Lake Okauchoochoochee. Lodge A, Jewel robbery and a murder at Lake Okauchoochoochee. Lodge A, Jewel robbery and a murder at Lake Okauchoochoochee.

"SUNNYSIDE UP"—MAJESTIC

An entirely new Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are revealed in "Sunnyside Up," the Fox Movietone musical comedy.

Miss Gaynor, who reveals a voice of rare charm, sings three songs, including "If I Had a Talking Picture of You," the latter as a duet with Charles Farrell.

Farrell, in the role of a society man from Southampton, acquires himself creditably in a light comedy part and sings in a manner that stamps him as a real find in the talking picture musical comedy field.

The story is fast, full of action and replete with excellent comedy. Unquestionably David Butler, the director, deserves unlimited applause for his production of "Sunnyside Up" which sets a new standard of entertainment for the audible screen.

"BIG BROWN EYES"—ORIENTAL THEATRE

Some like romance, some like thrills, some like comedy, and "Big Brown Eyes," with Joan Bennett and Cary Grant sharing the leading roles, has everything.

Thrills? With a wide-awake, quick-thinking maniac and her cop sweetheart smashing through crooks' defences to bring baby-killers and gangsters to justice! A wide-awake blonde, who sees all and knows all, spilling all the dirt in her own private gossip column!

Joan leaves her manicuring job to go to work for a newspaper columnist. She gets a hunch of a mysterious jewel-robbery, which is turning the town upside-down, and the killing of a little baby in the park, and she goes to work to run the story down. Joan puts her finger on the criminals, and forces them to stand trial, but through political pull, they get off.

Joan gets another hunch and with Grant, works out the details of a trap. This time it works, and the final fadeout shows the lovers reunited, the guilty gangsters getting what they deserve, and everyone happy.

GIRL IN TRUNK MYSTERY

Coroner Adjourns Inquest

FATHER'S DISTRESS IN COURT

Rotherham.—An inquest which was opened last month on Irene Hart, the 16-years-old domestic servant, whose body was found in a tin trunk in her home at Hartington-road, Rotherham, was adjourned sine die.

Only evidence of identification and the cause of death were taken. The coroner, Mr. W. H. Bradford, said that it appeared that the girl was last seen alive by her stepmother about 9.30 a.m. the previous Saturday.

Mrs. Hart left her home at that hour, and when she returned at 11 o'clock the girl was missing. At 2 p.m. her body was found in the tin trunk with a piece of cord tied tightly round the neck.

Post Mortem Held

Dr. F. C. Collinson, police surgeon at Rotherham, who made a post mortem examination, stated that death was due to asphyxia. The mark on the throat pointed to this as the cause of death.

The father of the dead girl was the first to arrive at the court. He was so distressed that after giving evidence the police surgeon had to attend to him. He was allowed to give his evidence from a seat in the court without going into the witness box. When a paper was put before Mr. Hart, he signed it with a cross.

"PAYING DEBTS" PLEA

£10 In Relief While Earning £42

It was alleged at Liverpool last month that Harold Preen, aged 29, of Frost-street, Liverpool, had during six weeks last spring drawn £10 4s. in poor relief for himself, wife and child, while earning in the same period over £42 as a wax modeller at a store.

When he again applied for relief on becoming unemployed it was found that Preen owned a motor-car.

Preen, who pleaded guilty to two summonses for making false statements in order to obtain relief from the Public Assistance Committee, was fined £5 on one summons and bound over on the other on condition that he repaid £10 4s.

The defence was that while unemployed Preen borrowed money, and after obtaining work, continued to draw relief to repay his creditors.

Passing Motorist Gives Alarm

A motorist who saw flames through the windows on the first floor at the White Hart public-house, High-street, Stoke Newington, last month, gave warning at the police station.

Mr. John Stanley, the licensee, his wife, and staff were aroused by policemen, and they came downstairs.

An outbreak of fire in the masonic hall was subdued by firemen.

PREMIER IN FINAL CONTROL

GRAND VIZIER'S SUPPORT
Serville: Speaking in the name of the Grand Vizier of Spanish Morocco, his Secretary thanked the Spanish populace of Seville and Cordova in a radio broadcast for the courtesy extended to the Grand Vizier during the latter's visit to these cities. The Grand Vizier, so the Secretary said, had declared that the Moroccans were glad they were supporting the cause of the Nationalists from the beginning, and that after witnessing the existing conditions, he was willing to repeat the offer of financial support in the struggle of the Nationalists in Spain against Communism. — Trans-Ocean Service.

SHE SANG AFTER HER "HIDINGS"

Girl Who Is "Dancing Man"

"She is dancing mad, and will not work," said the father of Hilda Weller, aged 19, who was charged at Rotherham recently with stealing $5 from the handbag of a woman she met at a dance.

"I have given her hidings for staying out late at night," declared the father. "When she has had a hiding she has gone upstairs, and come down soon afterwards singing." The girl was placed on probation for three years.

LOST SHIP WAS OVER-LOADED

Attorney-General's Assertion

"DISGUISED ATTEMPT TO BREAK THE LAW"

Three questions were put by Sir Donald Somervell, K.C., the Attorney-General, to the jury, at the Old Bailey, considering charges arising out of the loss of the oil tanker La Cresenta.

They were:

Was the ship overloaded?

Were the defendants parties to that overloading?

Was the overloading such that the lives of persons were likely to be endangered?

The men charged were Sydney Graham, aged 37, company director, and Ralph Henry Holland aged 44, a ship's manager. They pleaded not guilty to Sending the ship to sea on three occasions in such an unseaworthy condition that the lives of persons were likely to be endangered.

Conspiring together to incite the master to load his ship in contravention of the Merchant Shipping (Safety and Load Line Convention) Act, 1932.

La Cresenta was lost with all hands in the Pacific in December, 1934.

New Rule Enquiries

Sir Donald Somervell said: La Cresenta was owned by the Cresent Navigation Co. Ltd., of which Graham was a director and Holland the secretary. The managers of the ship were another company called Harris and Dixon Ltd., of which Graham was managing director and Holland the head of the ship management department. The two companies were allied.

In February, 1932, Mr. Graham wrote to Lloyd's asking if any alterations were required to bring the ship into accord with suggested new freeboard rules. They replied the day after the rules were issued assigning a special tanker load line to the La Cresenta subject to a number of modifications.

Then Mr. Graham wrote saying that those would involve somewhere between £400 and £450 and that in the circumstances the company preferred to adhere to the original load line.

Sir Donald said that according to the prosecution La Cresenta was overloaded by 408 tons on one voyage from Batoum to Vladivostok. On other voyages overloading amounted to 240 tons and 260 tons was alleged.

Incitement Of Master

He submitted that letters to the master, Capt. Uphill, showed persistent incitement of the master to overload by Graham and Holland.

A passage from one letter read: "We desire you to load as much cargo as you possibly can and we assume that you should be able to take at least 8,200 tons."

Sir Donald pointed out that as the suggested amount of bunkers was 1,500 tons, the total amount with the cargo would be 9,700 tons. That was more than 84 tons over her tropical marks and 680 tons over what she was entitled to carry in winter.

The master replied that if the voyage was to be through the Suez Canal, it would be impossible to carry what was suggested, and pointed out that they were under winter loading.

Much As Possible

The letters from Messrs. Harris and Dixon, in reply, stated:

"We do not think you are right in your presumption. We are going into this question again, as we are desirous of taking as much cargo as possible." Sir Donald suggested that the

BABIES ARE NOT PEDESTRIANS

Case Collapses At Hull

"HOLE" IN REGULATIONS

Hull.—A summons against George Young, a Corporation bus-driver, for not allowing free passage to pedestrians at a beacon crossing was dismissed at the police-court here last month.

It was stated that the bus was discharging passengers at a stopping-place.

Mrs. Muriel Morgan, who was wheeling her baby in a perambulator, stated that she pushed the perambulator on to the crossing and was about to follow when Young restarted the bus, and waved her back.

Cross-examined, she agreed that she herself was never on the crossing.

Defence Contention

The defence contended that a baby in a perambulator was not a pedestrian, and no offence had been committed.

The prosecution replied that a baby was a human being and entitled to protection.

Mr. J. R. Macdonald, the stipendiary magistrate, dismissed the summons, and remarked that there was a hole in the regulations. He was willing to state a case.

LIONESS AND A TIGER

Become Firm Friends In Zoo

Some weeks ago Bessie, a 12-months-old lioness, born in the London Zoo, and Sam, a tiger of the same age, born at Whipsnade, were placed together in the same cage. The friendship hoped for by the zoo did not, however, progress.

Bessie began by being friendly towards the tiger, but he was suspicious of her. By degrees, however, Sam decided that he really did like Bessie, and he became friendly. By this time the lioness felt offended, and she refused to recognise him. Both sulked for a period, but they gradually relented, and now the tiger and the lioness are firm friends.

Ranee and Rajah, the tigers, have been suffering from gastric trouble. Last month they were unable to eat meat, and were living on a milk diet.

KING LEOPOLD'S STATEMENT

The Paris Soir, in summing up the present situation, says that all conjectures at this moment are inopportune, since the Belgian Government has not yet taken up the issue, and it is expected that the measures will not be judged until they are passed or rejected.

In a few days, so the paper states, the Belgian Government will provide the interested Powers with an explanation of how it proposes to put the King's declaration into harmony with Belgium's treaty obligations, and even now it is asserted that the neutrality policy will in no way conflict with the obligations under the Locarno Pact and the League of Nations Co-sent. The Belgian Government is of the opinion that the word "neutrality" is misleading, and that the English words "no entanglements" are more correct.

The Paris Soir concludes by saying that in any case the two interested Powers, France and England, can make no move until the Belgian Government has considered the measure and issued a complete explanation, and thus judgment must be reserved until the doctrine becomes fact.—Trans-Ocean Service.

letter was a disguised suggestion to break the law.

The jury would find in several of the letters what he might call qualifying words — for instance, "We look to you to load a maximum cargo with safety."

They might have to consider whether those words were put in as a sort of cloak, to enable the writer to try to say: "I told him to do nothing wrong," or, "I was not giving him definite instructions."

The hearing was adjourned.
